Book Sales Policy: Any customer who does not wish to keep his/her yearbook may obtain a refund provided the book is returned in the same condition. Once returned, the book becomes property of the staff and can be resold. Exchanges can be made for books with minor flaws if no writing has been done in the book. If a book has been written in, no exchange can be made unless the adviser feels the flaw is major (pages missing, pages upside down, etc.). It will be the responsibility of the buyer to provide proof of purchase if no record can be provided by the staff. A canceled check or online receipt will constitute proof of purchase. Books not claimed at the end of the first semester of classes in the fall automatically become the property of the yearbook staff and can be sold at the current price.
